we'll bear the heat, but if it ever gets to hot,
Remember pepsi-cola hits

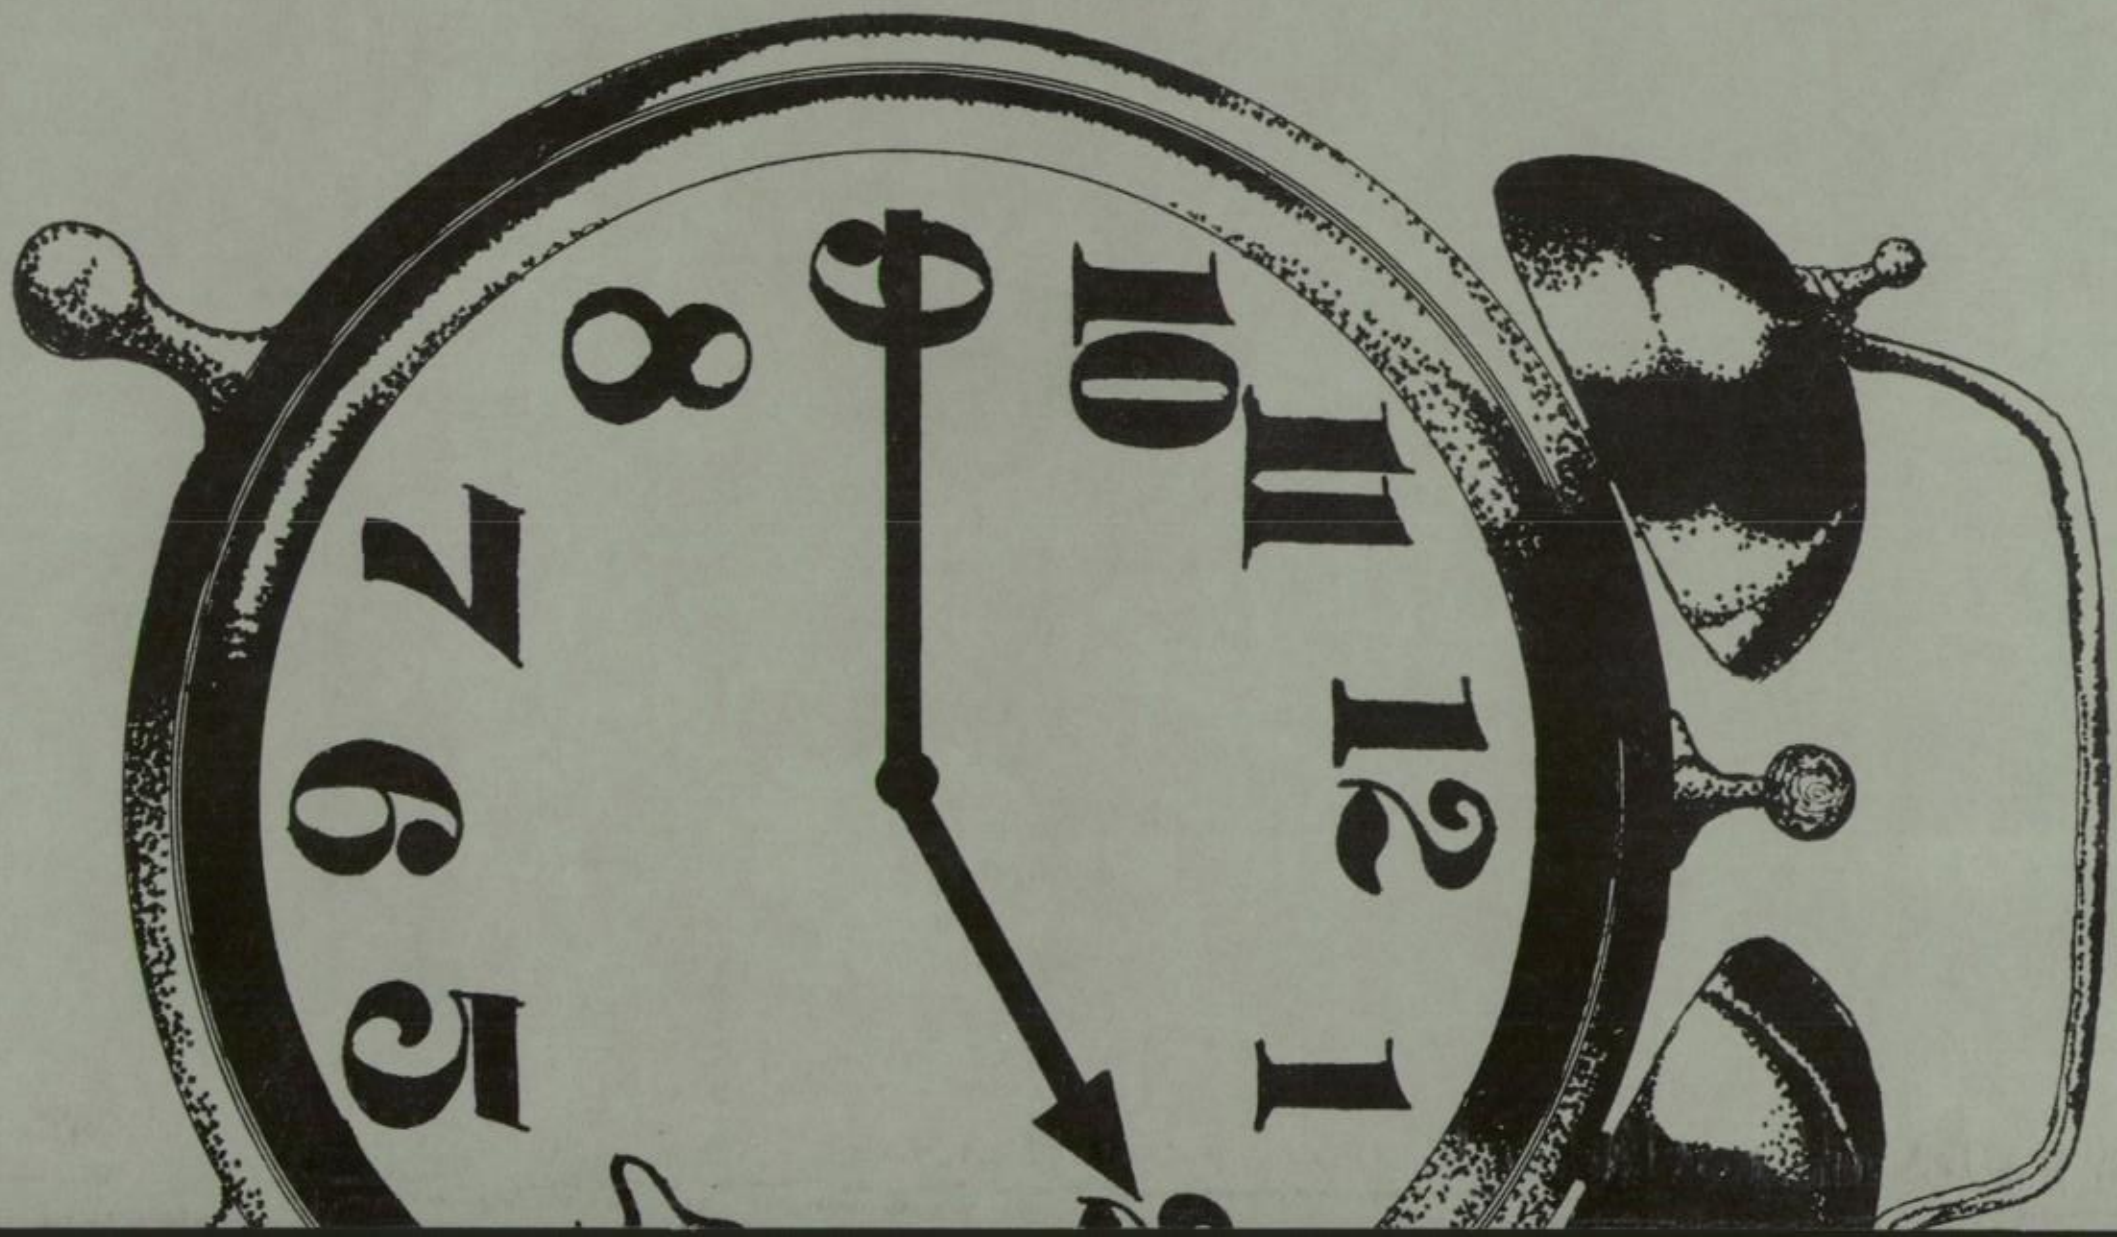
STUDENT LIFE



TIME IS . . .

. . . WAITING FOR THE BUS IN THE RAIN.

. . . LEARNING TO LOVE.

. . . WAITING FOR A FOOTBALL VICTORY.

. . . WALKING DOWN A LONELY CORRIDOR.

. . . WAITING FOR THE SNACK BAR TO OPEN

AT BRUNCH.

. . . TICKING OF A CLOCK THAT NEVER STOPS.

. . . STANDING IN LINE FOR AN ADMIT.

. . . GROWING UP WITH YOUR FRIENDS.

. . . WAITING FOR GRADUATION.

▲ Monta Vista warms-up with style.

September 9. . .If I yell any more, I'll lose my voice forever!. . .Where's Penny? Has anybody seen Penny??. . .Why are we wearing last year's cheerleader's uniforms??. . .Here we go Matadors, here we go!!! And go is just what the powerful Matador football team did; straight to their third Jamboree championship. . .it was stampeding the Homestead Mustangs, 9-3. . .it was out-flying the Sunnyvale Jets, 13-3. . .and it was telling everyone in the league that we've got PURPLE PRIDE!!!

▲ Marquesas say, "Do it with a smile!"

RALLIES SPARK SCHOOL SPIRIT

▲ Sound-off!

I never thought I'd see the day when our football team danced . . . hey, Momma A, how about a pie . . . you too, Debbie and Sam . . . I don't believe it, a purple power bra for support . . . The spirit squads worked hard and this year's rallies helped produce emotional wins over arch-rival Cupertino and in the Jamboree. . .it was Penny's "lei" and Darlene's pom pons . .it was the costume competition at Halloween. . .and it was Buck Shore, "This is Your Life."

▲ "This is your WIFE, Coach Shore!"

▲ "Don't ask me what we're doing, Just watch Cheyenne!"

Purple power?

▲ "But Debbie, didn't you eat your lunch?"

▲ And the winner is. . . Ivonne Booker!

▲ Get out the Clorox, mom

November 12. . . I don't know who I want for Homecoming Queen, they're all so pretty. . . I haven't seen so many tuxes since the Christmas Ball. . . Look, there's a Matador and a Bull!!!. . . a Viking too! Wonder who they are?? (E.H,J.P,S.F.). . . I wonder if all those old rah-rahs could fit into their uniforms??. . . What is this, a class reunion? I never saw so many alumni. . . Hey, is anybody watching the game??. . . Monta Vista's Homecoming was a display of beauty, competition, and spirit, highlighted by the crowning of Miss Ivonne Booker as 1976 Homecoming Queen. Completing the Homecoming court were Sharon Nelson, Darlene Karayan, Dee Devine, Shari Bauer, and Deanna Buckle. . . it was seeing NOBODY fall down the stairs. . . it was Mr. Lindsay and his classy black T-Bird. . . and it was Ivonne Booker, 1976 Homecoming Queen. . . Has anybody seen our frogs?. . .The "Bootleggin Boogie" was the theme of the annual Sadie sponsored by the Drill Team. Couples danced to the tunes of "Collective Works" in a bayou setting. . .it was waiting forty-five minutes to have your picture taken and then to see other people wait five minutes. . .it was those yellow creatures running around (J.P., H.A.,K.E.,C.S.). . .and it was marriage ceremonies and sitting in circles talking between dances.

LET'S SWITCH!!

Elisabet Gunilla Cecilia Carlberg, alias "Bitte," brought a "bit of Sweden" to Monta Vista this year. Bitte, a native of Stockholm, lives with Mrs. Emler. She enjoys art, music, skiing, and travelling. Bitte is an outgoing, sensitive person and is easy to get to know. Her favorite thing about M.V. is the system of choosing classes. Her one comment about Americans is that "they don't open up to people." She says that it's easy to get acquaintances, but hard to make friends."

Stephane Kante, a resident of Paris, France, is staying with senior Martine Burkel and her brother, Patrick, a sophomore. He met the Burkels while they were living in France, and when they returned to the U.S., he came with them. Stephane enjoys his Art and Spanish classes, and is surprised at the student involvement at Monta Vista. He likes the school system and variety of classes here, since he has no choice of his schedule in France. While in the U.S., Stephane visited San Diego with the Burkels, and takes occasional trips to Swensen's for ice cream.

Candido Silva Montiero visits Monta Vista from Brazil. He is a sophomore in Monta Vista's sister school in Recife, Brazil. Candido is staying with Birdie and Shelley Rintala and their family while in the United States. Each semester, Monta Vista exchanges a student with Recife. This year, Laura Becherer and Anne Rohrs acted as "M.V.'s ambassadors" to Brazil.

Paulo Gueiros visits Monta Vista from Brazil, and lives with sophomore Dale O'Neil. Paulo was able to come to the United States through the Youth for Understanding (YFU) program.

Laura Jerusalami is Monta Vista's visitor from Uruguay. She resides in the capital city of Montevideo. Laura is living with junior Ruth Davis and her family while in the United States. She enjoys music and sings alto in Concert Choir. Laura is also involved in the YFU program.

I expect to pass this way but once; therefore, any good that I can do or any kindness I can show to any fellow creature, let me do it now, for I may never pass this way again.
Attributed to Etienne De Grellet

Thinking back on the times we have had together, at Monta Vista, we remember the joys this class has shared. Each of us is different, but we share one thing in common; we are all leaving behind the familiar halls of Monta Vista. Though we will all venture off, let us still hold on to memories of our past school days. For memories never lose meaning or purpose. The values and experiences that we learned here, helped to create the people we are today. Whatever doubts or fears assail us, let us hold close these years and remember friends.

Here is where we started out, fresh and new, oblivious to what was going on. We looked up to each new person that we met. Now, we are the ones that people look up to. Their future years, here at Monta Vista, are determined by what we have done. They will be the ones to take our places.

For us, another side of life a real world awaits us. We have all heard the line, "you are the leaders of tomorrow." Now we have come to realize that it is true.

But life is not meant to be all serious; being a senior allows us to enjoy different aspects of life and what it has to offer. "Live life fully, confident in its worth and wonder." As we go now, out into this world of ours, approaching new people and places, let us have faith in ourselves and in our abilities. "Be glad that you are who you are. But strive to grow." We found our abilities here at Monta Vista. Allow this seed to grow and experience new thoughts and ideas. "Living is becoming. Life is a journey."

WHAT IS A SENIOR?

A Senior is a person who in the back of his mind knows someday soon he must leave this place that has helped develop him into the individual he shall remain.

It's football and McDonalds after. Christmas Balls, school plays, and Sadies, remember those? It's realizing we really are the best school around and to be proud of it!

It's watching the freshmen at the Welcome Dance-if you can see straight!

You can see the differences in your friends as they separate from "The Group".

It's OUR YEAR!!! It's 5,000 college applications to be filled out. The Senior Ball, hitting the beach, Albino hunting, SAT tests, and parties are all on the agenda.

You don't have to impress anyone 'cuz we're on top! When you are a Senior, "rah-rahs" and "backgaters" are all just people in the same boat. We're all counting how many days until graduation, but are we really that excited to leave??

Well ubi-ubi to you too, Eben - ha ha - elephant noise - I'm glad I got to know you as well as I did - a-hooo - chocke chocke - Its been pretty neat - ~~peep peep~~ - having you in Intro to Bus. - a-hem - even though you were kind of ~~bouncy and~~ loud. - like - Spit - gross spit.

SPORTS

well, I hope you have a really great summer and I'll see you next year! Call me some time - and if I'm gone to Brasil I'll write you. Love & Stuff!

Byeeeeee,

Just Me,

Nanners -

The Board of Trustees has worked long and hard to make the Fremont Union High School District a little better. We at Monta Vista wish to thank the Board for their efforts. We are proud to be a member of this district, and we hope we have made the Board proud of us.

The Student Liaison serves as a representative for the students of the seven schools of the Fremont District. He serves as a student advisor to the District Board of Trustees. He also attends meetings of the Intra-District Council and the Legislative Council of the various schools. When an issue of concern or importance to the students arises, the Student Liaison visits the schools to hear the students' opinions so that he may better represent them at the Board of Trustees' meetings.

THANK YOU'S:

To the 1977 El Valedor Staff, for their perseverance, caring, and good spirits even in times of desperation: . . . What are we doing in the German room? . . . I'm tired of running back and forth to Room One for supplies . . . Has anyone seen my grease pencil?? . . . I wish I could draw like Mickey . . . Theresa, will you quit making your own rules for cropping! . . . MORE negatives lost? . . . Rick, will you PLEASE stop hanging from that ledge to take the picture! . . . Eric, can you write this copy for me, I need it in ten minutes!!! . . . But I don't want to spend another Sunday with Mrs. Mac . . . What do you mean, I LIKE empty pictures of nothing? . . . Why won't you tell us who the book is dedicated to, we can keep a secret!! . . . Mickey, can you do this artwork for me, you have until tomorrow . . . Why doesn't anyone listen when I say, "Clean up everybody?" . . . Where's the cake?? . . Mrs. Mac, can I have a ride home again tonight, everybody's asleep at my house!!!??

To Mr. John Simas, for his constant support, understanding, good humor, and for offering his shoulder to cry on!!

To Miro Vranjes, for all his long hours spent in developing our pictures, and for having patience with our many demands.

To Mr. Dick Marlow and the Business Department, for all their help in supplying typing ribbons and white-out, and for their help in our camera work.

To Mrs. Gretchen Biele, for having patience when we invaded her room, for her kindness when we left things laying around, and for contributing her "German supplies" for our cultural events!!

To Miss Betty Martin and her inexhaustible Xerox machine!

To Mr. Mark Dossey, for his suggestions, extra time spent with us, and his guidance when we were stuck: You call this a yearbook class??!! You do know there is a deadline tomorrow, don't you?? . . . You want to do what?? Cut a hole in the endsheet?? . . . What do you mean, did I bring you a cake??

To Mrs. Alyce McNerney, for sharing her knowledge and talents with our yearbook staff, for always being "on the spot" to listen to our problems and predicaments, for offering constructive criticism, and for looking brightly down the long road to the time when the yearbook deadlines have all been met: Okay group! Time for our 51st lecture, or is it the 52nd? . . . No, I am not staying all night in Room One . . . I'll be here till 8 PM today, tomorrow, and the next day, until you dingalings finish . . . You mean somebody actually used one of my captions? . . . "S'later," group!!

To Mickey Gray and Dana Dowd, for all their beautiful artwork they did for us.

To Eric Hallquist, for his unrelenting, superior job as Copy Editor, and for composing the poem in the closing section.

To the many people who helped make the yearbook production possible!

Colette

To Colette: Thanks for all your hard work, dedication and patience.
WE NEVER COULD HAVE DONE IT WITHOUT YOU.
. . . but, Colette, there's no film in the camera . . . what really happened late at night in Room 1?? . . . can I please have one more page for my section?
